On September 23, over 15 expats in Ningbo were invited to celebrate the one-year countdown to the upcoming 19th Asian Games Hangzhou 2022 in Wanboo Fish Resort, Beilun District, Ningbo (a co-host city of the Hangzhou Asian Games). They shared views on the Games and participated in water sports, including sailing and kayaking. The event provided a unique window for Ningbo expats and local citizens to get further insights into the Hangzhou Asian Games and foreign cultures.

The activity started with a Q&A session that sparked the interest of the attendees. First came the warm-up questions related to the 19th Hangzhou Asian Games, such as the opening date, mascot, location, theme, and slogan. With expats' sharing their views on sports and expectations for the Games, the atmosphere was getting hyper. In a follow-up icebreaker game, participants proceeded to set up tents. Some of them pulled the tarp and others put the poles through the tent, co-operating quite well. Working as a team, they not only successfully pitched the tents but also build up friendships.

Then came the training and experiencing session. Mr. Wang, a kayaking coach, presented a detailed training course for all the participants.

Mr. Wang displayed and introduced a double kayak, also known as a tandem kayak, with two seats. Paddlers can store some food, clothes, and small gadgets in the dedicated space on the kayak. Excited about this sport, participants couldn't wait to give it a try.

Jeswin, a Ghanaian expat currently engaged in international trade, tried kayaking for the first time. "It was difficult at the beginning. Then I got the hang of it and things went much easier. It was exciting." Jeswin expressed his expectations and best wishes for the approaching 19th Hangzhou Asian Games.

Wanboo Fish Resort, with its water sports base covering an area of 100,000 square meters, possesses 84 berths for yachts and sailboats, as well as professional facilities and equipment (e.g., 10 FAREAST 28R racing keelboat, 10 FIRST 20 (BENETEAU) sailboats). Here, participants also got a chance to enjoy sailing (one of the three contests to be held in Ningbo's Asian Games Sailing Center).

Christian Fardel, a French educator with more than 40 years of teaching experience in sailing and aviation, shared his sailing experiences and insights with the journalist of Ningbo Evening News. Christian has been in China since 2017, studying Chinese for some time at Zhejiang University. He is dedicated and successful in sailing coaching and promotion with the aim of encouraging more people to get involved in sailing. Last year, he co-organized a sailing competition where his team took the bronze. For the big event, the 19th Hangzhou Asian Games, Christian applied as a volunteer. He also helped to set up a sailing school in Lishui, Zhejiang province. Christian mentioned that sailing might be relatively new to Ningbo locals, but increased opportunities should be provided to encourage young people to embrace the sport; sailing clubs and related coaching schools should be established to facilitate sailing enthusiasts and young talents.

工行宁波市分行汇率避险服务护航外贸企业

宁波是中国第六座“外贸万亿之城”，辖区内进出口企业众多，跨境贸易和投融资业务频繁。近年来，人民币汇率双向波动日益常态化，对涉外企业稳定经营造成了一定影响。工行宁波市分行在打造“外汇业务首选银行”中，积极开展汇率避险服务，通过专属定制、便利办理和优惠让利等一系列措施，推动企业“迈出第一步，走上避险路”。

今年初，工行宁波市分行客户经理在走访宁波一家年收汇量600万美元左右的出口型企业中，了解到该企业尚未进行任何汇率规划，美元收汇后一直以活期形式存放，等支付工厂货款再即期结汇，因人民币持续升值公司已遭受数十万元汇兑损失。该行客户经理向企业详细介绍了汇率波动带来的各项财务风险，从长期、中性套保角度规划汇率。

经过该行专业细致的讲解，企业接受了风险中性的理念，打消了对衍生产品的顾虑，通过办理远期结汇使账户美元余额获得更好的结汇价格，同时锁定应收账款远期汇率，免
