

A roll of paper is shown against a background of cracked, dry earth. The roll is positioned vertically, with the top edge being a plain white paper. The main body of the roll is covered in a detailed, brown, textured pattern that mimics the bark of a tree trunk, complete with vertical grain lines and some irregularities. A single sheet of white paper is unrolled from the right side of the roll, extending towards the right edge of the frame. The lighting is dramatic, casting a soft shadow of the roll onto the cracked ground below it.
