Nana was a cute little poodle. She was my pet before. Her brown fur was curly, her big eyes and sharp teeth were shining all the time. She ran very fast just like a rabbit. When it ran, her ears went up and down just like a rabbit's ears.

Sad to say, the tragedy happened one day. Nana was lost! We couldn't find her anywhere. It was just like she was gone. I felt like breaking down. I miss her so much.

But now, I believe her life is great! Because she's a clever dog, and she's a good pet.

What is the most popular sport in China? No doubt, Ping-pong. Everybody loves this sport and I am no exception.

The pandemic in the spring of last year locked down people at home. I was isolated in my grandma's village, too. Lonely and anxious as I was, I turned to Ping-pong to release the pressure. I practiced Ping-pong everyday by myself, which calmed me down and brought me peace and optimism. I realized that the game must go on, the show must go on, and the life must go on. This is the spirit of sports, hope and life!

Fortunately the Covid-19 is under control now and I can play Ping-pong with friends again. How excited we are! I am even looking forward to watching the Hangzhou Asian Games next year.

Good morning, Everyone!

Today I'm going talk about to my favorite. I am a lovely and activity boy. I like many kinds of sports, such as walking, running, swimming, climbing and basketball. Sports give me a good health and bring me a lot of fun. Now, I will tell you about my cycling sport. I often ride my bike when I am free. I like to ride my bike on a road. There are no cars and few people on the road. It is not very long.

It is very good for cycling. When I ride down the slope, the bike runs very fast, and I feel like flying. It's very good for me. Cycling gives me a lot of fun. Sports like cycling give me a strong body and bring me wonderful moments. If you want to be strong, please join in sports; if you want to enjoy a happy life, please join in sports, too.

I hope that you will all like sports and have a better future! Thank you very much!

Rainy Weekend Evening,
Indoors we play sandbag throwing at each other,

One ,two ,three,
And one, two,three,
Amid yells and screams,
Small soft sandbags,
Happily we run throwing them at each other,
One ,two ,three
And one, two,
as we count, One sandbag is missing,
Tiredly , Dad sits down,
At a glimpse of a big basin tree aside,
There seems something black in the green,
Tucked between the branches
is the missing sandbag!

I have a little brother named Yi yi. He is three years old, with small eyes, small nose and a round face.

Toy car is his favorite. He likes playing different kinds of toy cars every day. When he plays with them, he will imitate the sounds of police car, ambulance, fire engine, and train. It is really interesting to watch him play.

Besides, he likes crying very much. When he falls down, he will cry at once. When I don't give him my toys, he will cry too. One day, he wanted my LEGO gun, and I didn't agree. He started to cry. Then my mother asked me to share it with him. I had no choice but gave them to him. To my anger, he broke them down. I shouted to him and then he started to cry again. You see, he really likes crying, because crying is his weapon.

This is my brother. He lets me feel proud and annoyed at the same time.
