I have a sister. Her name is Mia. She is a clever girl. I like to play with her.

One day, we played basketball together at grandma's house. I threw the ball to my father, and then said to her, "Mia, the ball was took away by my father." She got up her courage, took the ball from my dad and gave it to me.

Oh, she is also a little brave girl.

I like Children's Day best, because we can have a good time on that day. Children's Day is on June 1.

On that day, we can sing or dance and sometimes we play many games. They are very interesting. I often draw pictures and play games with my classmates. Teachers take photos of us and post them on the Wechat, so my parents can see us. And I like it because I can eat ice cream and cakes. They're my favorite.

Oh, I love Children's Day!

Spaghetti can be delivered or made at home. Delivery spaghetti is easy to order. Homemade spaghetti is difficult to make. Homemade spaghetti is hot. Delivery spaghetti is not as hot as homemade spaghetti. I like to eat homemade spaghetti because it is healthy and fresh.

To me, home made spaghetti tastes the best.

And the Elephant

Once upon a time, there were four blind brothers near the path. Here came a man. He has an elephant. The brothers didn't know what the elephant was.

"What's this?" Asked one of the brothers.

"It's an elephant." Said the man, "You can touch it."

The brothers all touched the elephant and each touched a different part, then what they said about the elephant was totally different. But none of them was right.

From then on, people told the story of the blind men guessing an elephant to give a lesson of taking a part for the whole.
