I have an interesting family.
Look! My sister is playing with a cat. Her name is Henry. Henry is very cute but a little naughty. She has two big eyes and a long tail. My mother is cooking beef noodles. They're delicious. My father is sweeping the floor. So my home is clean. My grandpa is sleeping. He is very tired. Because he worked until 10:30 p.m. last night. What about my grandma? She is washing clothes. And I am doing homework. I have a lot of summer vacation homework.
I feel very happy! I love my family forever!

This is my friend--Lai keyi. She is a beautiful girl. She has long hairs and small eyes. She's neither tall nor short. She can sing songs very well. She likes dancing very much, too. She doesn't like vegetable, but she likes carrots. Is she shy? No, she is lively. Sometimes she is little funny. At that time we often laughed.
I love my friend.

Spring is here. Mom and I go outside to find spring. The sun shines, and tiny leaves grow from branches. Flowers are blooming. So beautiful! Birds chirp, ducks quack and bees buzz. Spring pops here, there and everywhere. I can have spring fun-biking, hiking and flying kites. I love spring so much!

Hello! I'm Amy. Dragon Boat Festival is coming. I'd like to introduce some food to you.
Zongzi is the symbol for the festival. It consists of rice dumplings with meat, peanut, egg yolk, and other things wrapped in bamboo leaves. For me, I like the pork-stuffed Zongzi the best. My grandma will make Zongzi in the festival. I enjoy the valuable time so much.
Salted duck egg, Tea egg, Sweet green rice ball... are all popular food during Dragon Boat Festival.
Wow! They're yummy. Let's share!

Follow the direction of the flowers
A wisp of fragrance
Little by little, light and shallow
Oh, the four seasons cassia is looking at its appearance on the branches.
Follow the direction of the fallen leaves
A golden tree
Overflowing with splendor and dancing with ten thousand butterflies
Oh, the ginkgo leaves are swaying slightly in the wind.

Last weekend, I went to the park with my friend, Dorothy. Dorothy said: "Oh! There are so many beautiful flowers!" We found a grassplot and had a picnic on the grassplot. Dorothy took some toys that look very interesting. She also took some cakes that look very tasty. I ate it, but it was not as good as I had expected.
Then we went to the playground. It has a big net, I climbed on. I was nervous at the beginning, but I climbed on the top at last, I felt so excited!
What a happy day!

My father used to be a navy man. He is tall and handsome. He is a very responsible person.
Last year, when the new corona virus broke up, there were several cases in our city. The situation was very serious. Party members were urgently needed to help with the prevention and treatment.
My father volunteered at the first time. He said to my mother and me: "It is the time for the country to fight with the virus, as a Party member, I should rush in the front!" Then, he put on a red vest and a mask to work there.
Every morning, when I was still sleeping, my father was already commanding the vehicles and measuring the temperature for the people. Every night, when I was laying in my warm bed, my father was still checking the vehicles into the village in the cold wind. When the corona virus was controlled and the factories restarted, my father devoted himself to visit more than one hundred factories and companies to help solve the problems.
My father is never afraid to face the virus or any difficulties. He is a brave man in my eyes.

Hello, everyone! Today I'd like to introduce my lovely pet, a 3-year-old dog to you. Its name is Lucky and he is very cute.
Lucky is very friendly and always helps me a lot. Every time I go home from school, he will always greet me warmly and puts his fat paws on my hands. He tries to shake hands with me! We often play games together happily after dinner. I will throw a small ball on the grass and he will run after it and bring it back to me soon. We have so much happy time together! On weekends, we sometimes go to parks and run along the green trees. He usually jumps up to eat cookies on my hands! It's very funny!
One day I fell down and my leg hurt. Lucky ran to my parents and barked for help. At last, my parents found me and saved me. How kind he is!
Lucky is one of my family members and we love each other so much! Do you have a pet?
