Last Sunday, I went to Mount Putuo with my mother. It was interesting.

At first, I felt so bored, because we could not do anything but burn incense and worship the gods. But when we got to the temple. I saw some people throwing coins. How exciting it was. So I threw a coin, too. It was so fun. First, I touched the picture of outside, and then took out a coin. After sevral times, I became a perfect sharpshooter.

What an excellent boy!

Although I was so tired, I cannot wait to go next time.

In the National holiday, my parents and I went to the seashore for vacation. When we drove all the way forward, I saw many red national flags along the road, and people walked happily on the road.

Finally, we came to the seashore. I couldn't wait to jump out of the car, took off my shoes and ran to the sea. The sand on the beach was so soft and warm and the waves kissed my toes. Wow, it was so cool! The golden beach, the blue sea and the white waves are like a beautiful picture. It made me feel free and happy.

I like holidays, because I can stay with my family and travel to see much different scenery!

Before the Spring Festival, people buy new clothes and clean their houses. On New Year's Eve, I have a big dinner with my family. I can get many red envelopes from my relatives.
